

Mushrooms, Inc. Announces Name and Ticker Symbol Change on OTC Markets to “MSRM”

Estero, FL, November 29, 2022 – Mushrooms Inc. (OTC: MSRM) (the “Company”), formerly Marijuana Strategic Ventures, Inc., is pleased to announce that, effective November 29, 2022, the Company’s ticker symbol on the OTC Markets has changed from “MSVI” to its new symbol, “MSRM” and has been announced to FINRA’s daily list. The Company’s name change, which became effective with Nevada Secretary of State on June 28, 2022, has now also been reflected on OTC Markets.

It is important to note that Mushrooms, Inc. is the first company trading on the US stock market focused on the industrial side of Mushrooms.

“We are excited to begin trading under our new name and symbol as we continue our work building shareholder value. Our initial interest was to use the ticker MYCO for its relation to the word Mycology which is the study of fungi. We believe the ticker MSRM represents our name better as it tends to say the word Mushroom,” said Kimberly Carlson, the Company’s CEO.

Updates: The Company is continuing the development of the new mycelium derived textile through partnerships with University level educational institutions and building their team of consultants with a focus on mycology, chemistry and textile innovation.

The Company’s acquisition plan now involves the creation of an incubator and accelerator for start-ups focused on mycelium and mushroom based technologies that will feed into biotechnology,

New Website: We have created an updated website at, mushroomsinc.com, to represent our industrial focus. We are continuing to build out the pages of the new site which will include an investors page for updates and relative information, as well as an Alliances page to showcase the joint ventures and partnerships we are creating within the industry.

No action is required by current shareholders in relation to the ticker symbol change to MSRM
